One of the drivers of a five-ton truck owned by the American Thread Company had a narrow escape from a waiting, if nothing more Thursday afternoon while crossing a bridge over the canal at the west entrance of the company's property on Main street. The driver had made several trips across the bridge with his truck loaded but on this return trip while empty the right rear wheel of the truck broke through the planking of the bridge and the body of the truck settled onto the bridge. A gang of men jammed up the rear of the truck and it was soon hauled clear. Just what caused the accident could not be ascertained as the planking of the bridge is new and loaded trucks have always made safe trips over the structure.

Mrs. Rosie Kustneck of Village Hill is a patient at St. Joseph's hospital, this city, suffering with a severe scalp wound and a bruised head, the result of a fall after the horse hitched to the wagon in which Mrs. Kustneck was riding took flight at something unknown and dashed down a long hill located about half a mile from the city line. Mrs. Kustneck, accompanied by a boy, was on her way to this city and nothing unusual was noted until the horse which was hitched to the wagon suddenly took fright and dashed down the hill overturning the wagon which pinned the occupant. The woman who passed at that time picked up the injured woman and carried her to a physician's office, and when it was learned that she was at St. Joseph's hospital the woman was taken to the hospital where she remained several days. The horse after causing the damage returned to the barn at Village Hill.

Lower Main street and Church street were given their annual coating of oil on Thursday by the men of the street department under supervision of Street Superintendent Irving M. Ford. For some time now the city has had an order for 40,000 gallons of oil and some 15,000 gallons arrived Thursday morning and the work was commenced at once. Work was first done on Church street and North street, then on Main and Church streets, the work on lower Main being taken up in the afternoon. Other streets will receive their coating as soon as a larger supply arrives.

RHEUMATISM

Torturing Pains and Swollen Joints

Yasiah When Rheumatism is Used

If there are any rheumatic sufferers who have not availed themselves of this generous offer, they should do so at once. If Rheuma, the guaranteed prescription for rheumatism in any form, does not give quick and joyful relief, the rest, small as it is, will be gladly returned without any quibbling or red tape.

Rheumatism is a dangerous disease, and anyone who has the slightest sign of it should drive it from the system as quickly as possible. This is what Rheuma did for many. It should do as much for you. I have been laid up for one year with chronic arthritis, says one sufferer. I had doctors galore, also spent four months in a sanitarium, but had practically no relief. Then I started taking Rheuma. Now I can go with me without crutches or other aid, and I could not do for the last nine months. I highly recommend it, and would gladly answer any questions asked on receipt of stamp for postage. Thomas H. Eddy, Schuylerville, N. Y.

Rheuma is absolutely harmless and thoroughly reliable because it is the discovery that has forced rheumatism to yield and disappear. It is recommended and sold on the no-cure-no-pay plan by Lee & Osgood Co. and good druggists everywhere.

The Tip Top Revue is a riot of fun and songs. Al Lemons, a comedian doing French is literally "knocking 'em off their seats" with his mirth-producing bits and Al has two great co-stars in the fun stuff in Al Coleman and Let. Orra Jew. Ryan, the chap with the pleasing voice, and Billy Walsh make an unusually pleasing cast of male stars. In the female part of the cast, Miss Lillian, a clever girl with a good voice, Miss Beaulieu, who assumes the part of Mrs. Bosco, Coleman's wife, and Miss Velma. Liss carry their parts through to much success. The chorus of the act includes the Misses Sarah, Pauline, Irene, Irene, Zora, Faye, Yolande, Violet, Clark, Cicely, Sheldon, Florence, Ray, Flo, Clark, Rose, Crane and Babe Lee. The musical comedy act takes place in the vaudeville line and is well worthy of the time allotted. Lemons is one of the best comedians seen here in vaudeville in years and puts his comic bits across in real laugh-provoking style. The musical score is well selected and the chorus is well gowned and can sing. The Revue is replete with tuneful tunes, pretty girls and lots of fun.

The feature picture for today and tomorrow is Wallace Reid in Excuse My Dust, a six-part Paramount Aircraft special. International News and a funny Mutt and Jeff comedy completes the show. Everything new today.

Breed Theatre.
For the feature attraction today and Saturday the Breed will present Elaine Hammerstein in "Whisper." This is a wonderful story, wonderfully told by a woman who possesses the ability to be the character she portrays. It is a positive triumph for producer, star and director. The play abounds in compelling situations. Don't miss it for it is worth while. Thomas Wise and Gail Kane will also be seen in "Romeo's Dad." This is a delightful comedy drama and includes in its cast such stage favorites as Conrad Nagel, Ethel Standard, Helen Lowell, Jack Devereaux and Harry Forman. The Pathe news showing the Yale-Harvard boat race and a Fox-Sunshine comedy make up the remainder of the bill.

Larger Factory Necessary.
The Boston Union Cigar-makers' Cooperative, Inc., manufacturers of the Alta Cigar, has voted to increase the capital stock of the corporation from $100,000 to $200,000 and to provide a new and larger factory for the manufacture of their cigars.

The present factory at South Boston, where the now famous Alta Cigar was first made, a little more than seven months ago, is inadequate in size to handle the enormous output of Alta cigars made necessary by a nation-wide demand. The corporation is now seeking a new site for a larger factory.

The Boston Union Cigar-makers' Cooperative is a unique organization, as all of the stock of the organization is owned and controlled by the men actually engaged in the manufacture of Alta cigars. It is planned to have one of the largest factories in America manufacturing exclusively hand-made cigars.

COLCHESTER
Tuesday evening Oliver Woodhouse lodge, K. of P., received an official visitation from the grand chancellor and his associate officers. The meeting was held in Grange hall, as Pythian hall was too small to accommodate the crowd. One hundred and one members of the Natchaug lodge of Willimantic came over and brought with them Wheeler's American band. The members from New London lodge, five from Hartford, one from Bridgeport and several from other neighboring lodges were in attendance. A short parade was held at 7.30 o'clock with the American band and members of Natchaug lodge. The parade was through the principal streets and was dismissed at the hall. The lodge was duly opened and the degree team of Natchaug lodge worked the three ranks on one candidate and the third rank was conferred on another. District Deputy Carl Alford of Willimantic installed the officers for the ensuing term. The third rank team of Natchaug lodge is one of the crack teams of the state and conferred the rank very impressively and received much applause. A luscious hot sandwiches, cake, and punch was served during the evening. The visitors returned to their homes about 1.15 a. m. The following grand lodge officers were present: Grand Chancellor, Emmanuel Cave of Bridgeport, Grand Keeper of Record and Seals George E. Wright of Hartford, Grand Master of Exchequer William N. Potter of Willimantic, Grand Master at Arms Thomas H. Troland of New London and Supreme Representative Mayor Charles A. Gates of Willimantic. While the lodge was in session the American band gave a concert on Main street which was greatly enjoyed by the townspeople. The band also played several pieces at the residence of S. P. Willard on Broadway and at Judge Buell's store on South Main street. The Willimantic boys came over with the purpose of putting the old town back on the map again for Pythianism and it certainly looks as though they had.

Mrs. Henry J. Bailey and Mrs. Cyrus E. Pendleton were visitors in Norwich Tuesday.

Louis Alexander of the Hop Yard was in town Wednesday.

Mrs. Nellie Doane was a visitor in Norwich Wednesday.

S. H. Kellogg of New Britain was the guest of friends in town Tuesday.
